Departure of Guillaume Darrasse

TERACT has announced the departure of Guillaume Darrasse from his position as Deputy Chief Executive Officer. This announcement follows his decision to pursue a new professional project. His departure will be effective as of 31 March 2024.

Thierry Blandinières, Chair of the TERACT Board of Directors, states: "I would like to thank Guillaume for his role and significant contribution to the growth of InVivo Retail and then of TERACT. Under his leadership, the company embarked on a major transformation toward a stronger, more agile and more sustainable specialised distribution model. I wish him great success in his future challenges."

Moez-Alexandre Zouari, Chief Executive Officer of TERACT, states: "I extend my warmest thanks to Guillaume for the work achieved during the merger between 2MX Organic and InVivo Retail and our close cooperation in the operational management of TERACT's activities."

Guillaume Darrasse adds: "After five incredibly rewarding years within the InVivo cooperative group, first as Chief Executive Officer of InVivo Retail and then Deputy Chief Executive Officer of TERACT, I have decided to pursue a new chapter of my career. I am proud to have been part of a wonderful collective adventure in support of an ecological, agricultural and food transition. I would like to thank the teams at TERACT and wish them all the very best with the next stages of this project."

Moez-Alexandre Zouari will continue to lead the General Management of TERACT.

Guillaume Darrasse's successor will be announced following the publication of H1 2023-2024 revenue on 15 February.
